What's new in Anatomy Of Fear:

Sep 11, 2013 Harold Fernandez Staff writer KMUD -FM 93.7 - is no longer just a radio station. No more than a step-child of the political establishment, KMUD has become a confessional. The station is a pulpit from which right wing priest Jorge Mario Bergoglio excommunicates himself from the liberal public orthodoxy of the United States. That orthodoxy includes support for civil liberties of which there is a very logical and fair expectation including the right to free speech, the freedom of religion, and the freedom to marry whomever you choose. As the result of these rights, and of the written authority of the Constitution, all men, by definition, are entitled to the right to the "equality of rights" as ensured by the 14th Amendment. In direct contrast to these rights, and in violation of the written and unwritten requirements, the next manifesto of the fundamentalist, and his priest, is to somehow achieve a "holy war" against these rights and therefore all those who the privileged individuals believe are "unclean," or their media outlets are unworthy of listening or reading. KMUD-FM has been called upon to allow the airing of a far-right American preacher, known as the Rev. Gary Boggs, to, with the support of owner, Mr. Bergly, air what he calls a Bible Answer Seminar. He is a born-again, evangelical televangelist and pastor with a studio in Mesa, Arizona, who formerly preached on the Trinity Broadcasting Network. That right wing network is a sister to the religious right's most powerful political machine, the American Family Association, and in that capacity, it has given copious airtime to organizations and individuals of the most depraved constitutional vices. It is worth noting that what was once known as the Baptist Church founded the TBN network. For two decades, this organization has supported the "family" more than any other, including gays, and their particular version of the "rights" to speak, and to marry, and to live according to their system of values. In fact, the right wing, Christian, and fundamentalist interpretation of American and western, religious, democratic values are paradoxically the enemies of religion, which is the antithesis of the values the Right refuse to countenance. The Right and those organizations supporting them, grew and thrived in a country and a society

Survivor Island is a simulator where a player starts with the clothes of the body and is on a deserted island. All resources on the map are for the player to find. How to play: - Each left click will build an item in the inventory. - Each right click will remove an item from the inventory - The hotkeys to use: - Ctrl or Win to open the console - Shift + D to open the discard window - Shift + E to open the end of turn button For now, only single player is supported, there are no multiplayer support. This means there are no features for creating items, building items, etc. To donate, you can go to The team: - Dev worked on the game several years ago and I am an old supporter of the game and supporter of the dev - Catherine is working as an artist and artist was consulted for Survivor Island - Jean is an old supporter of the game and supports development The address to send stuffs: Survivor Island (Steam Games) 103 Feltman's Way Essex, UK Any questions, suggestions, donate, rate, or just support us. I wasn't given the WIP version and the price is too low. Finally a quality product will be released for a low price and you want me to pay more? That's just a shame. You won't have to pay anymore but it's a shame. However it's OK. The game will be updated over time, more features, items will be added, etc. It's the same, players that played the old version will continue to play the new one. Donate, rate. EDIT: This donation is not able to be refunded or expired due to the game not being WIP. You cannot request a refund anymore, sorry. _____ Lead Developer Anyone can ask any question, just click on the "?" icon.
