12 Sep 2015 I created the map using ProFantasy's CC3 software. The task of transferring it to Word was surprisingly easy. (My first try was awful.) Within a. Report "The map you have downloaded is in PDF format.Salon "Capitol Hill" - "Ciao Manhattan", Mario's Cafe Dear Fiati readers, here is my latest report. Salon "Capitol Hill" - "Ciao Manhattan" Dear Fiati readers, in a few days we will celebrate the appointment of the new Italian ambassador to the U.S. at the Embassy in Washington DC. The initial choice was Mario Cafaro, former Undersecretary of Foreign Trade and Economy in the Ministry of Economy and Finance. I posted yesterday the concept of the planned appointment of the new ambassador to the U.S. Mario Cafaro is a long-time friend of mine who once was asked to advise the Italian Ministry of Economy and Finance. He is someone who can't be accused of having a political ambition or vision. This was demonstrated when he advised the ministry during the relations between Italy and the U.S., when the American authorities were insisting on the support to Greece on the unfair conditions of the Bail-Out. Indeed, Cafaro, in his mandate to Ministry of Economy and Finance, had to deal with the Greek problem, whereas in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs he had to face the crisis of Libya, the "rebels", Egypt and Syria, as well as Turkey. Since then, Mario Cafaro has always demonstrated the spirit of flexibility, willing to talk to his foreign colleagues and work with them, not only in the spheres of economy, but also diplomacy. It's the same spirit I believe we should adopt when we consider the next role of ambassador of Italy in the United States. Indeed, in his proposed political career, Marco "Mario" Cafaro was born in the "Ducal Palace" of Caserta, in the "Borgo". As always in Italy, we have seen in recent years that the palace is the origin of the most influential political people, even those of no expertise. Starting with Berlusconi, who was first elected as Mayor of Milan, with a palace in "Borgo".
