CHAPTER 1: WHAT'S YOUR GRAND IDEA? After some time of training in the Lands Between, the party of three Elden Lords, Red-sword Primus, Black-sword Weaver, and Crimson-sword Morus, have successfully vanquished the monsters in the world's seven provinces. The three of them finally reached the capital city, their destination. It was an extremely hot day with vicious perspiration. The three Elden Lords walked towards the Royal Castle of Grislyph the King and were met by a guard stationed there. "I am Magister Moedicus, the royal magician. Your arrival here is unexpected. Were you sent here by the king?" "We, also, are here to meet the king." Red-sword Primus responded. "We would like to have a talk with your king." "It is an honor for you to come here. I will take you to the king right now." Moedicus, also, wanted to be greeted by the king. The Royal Castle of Grislyph the King Moedicus, the magister of the Royal Castle, led the three Elden Lords to the Royal Castle. There was music performed in the moment of arrival, and the castle looked more majestic than ever. The party entered the castle and went straight to the throne room. King Grislyph was sitting on his throne, his face unnoticeably holding a sullen frown. "What is your purpose here?" "We, too, are here to meet the king. We have something to talk to the king about." Red-sword Primus responded. Grislyph the king answered, "Your presence here is extraordinary. What is it that you want?" "We, also, are here to talk to the king. We would like to discuss some questions with you." Red-sword Primus responded again. "Please explain." The Throne Room of Grislyph the King "What are you really trying to do?" "It is a long story

Now imagine that after you've taken it, your anger goes away, you feel fine, you lose weight, and your face starts to change. How would you feel? What you're imagining is called the placebo effect. Studies show that somewhere between 25 percent and 80 percent of people are "placebo responders," and they use things like drugs, acupuncture, prayer, and vitamin products to reduce their discomfort and get better faster. The placebo effect is powerful. It's used in everything from pain reduction to weight loss to the fight against cancer, and now it's even being explored in the fight to reduce bullying. This week on the podcast, we're taking a look at what the placebo effect is, how it works, and the science that shows how it can be harnessed to help people improve their health, and help their kids.
