I want to use flowplayer to listen to some music. However, when I click on my playlist and the player starts to play, the audio volume is very low. I've checked that volume is at 50 and other streams are at 100... I'm using Chrome 17 on Windows 7. A: I found it. Open about:flags and enable allow-streaming. Then, when you play a playlist with something like this: flowplayer("main", "--visibility", "visible", "--auto-play", "true", "--flash-interval", "3", "--flash-controls", "-- playlist", "", "--auto-play-timeout", "1000", "--icon", "-- title", "Music play", "--config", "--transparent-background", "true", "
