Featuring comparisons with other companies and the brands below, you'll have all the facts you need to make an informed purchase. For those who are new to the world of Therapeutics, or are only looking for the most popular ways to make sure they're getting the best place to shop, keep reading... What is The Therapeutics Show? The Therapeutics Show is a trade-only, professional, interactive and social forum where medical cannabis professionals share and discuss industry-specific topics. What makes us different from other online resources is that we're all about results. We promote safe practices, we educate and equip health care practitioners, and we encourage patient involvement in quality medical cannabis therapy. We provide content on all the subject matters of the cannabis industry - from the genetics of the plant, the growing practices to the products produced - so whether you want to learn about Clinical Research, CBDs, non-psychoactive Cannabinoids or more clinical products like oil and tinctures, you can get the information you need. What do our competitors have to offer? The Therapeutics Show isn't your average trade show. We have greater access to the brands you want to shop from, and the industry leaders you want to get to know, with more details and context than if you were to spend your time at their showroom. Here's a quick list of the various trade shows and trade show producers in the industry: First, we'll talk about which brands to avoid. Then, we'll give you some suggestions on the best brands. Finally, we'll talk about the products that are currently only available in the states (or countries) that they are licensed for. Strawberry Platinum Labs Strawberry Platinum Labs is the last name of Mike Bell, a master grower and cannabis cultivator, and Mike is the brains behind Strawberry Platinum Labs. They bring a wealth of experience to the cannabis industry, as they've been growing cannabis in the Emerald Triangle since 2006. "We've seen
