Product activation and product.. The latest product revision is.Q: Replace by RegEx only if not between tags I have a string that looks like this: Hello; \1234 I need to replace the \1234 for $1. The problem is, that in my application the text is contained between tags. So I need the RegEx to check for the tags, or for tags that contain text, and replace it, but only if the text is not within the tags (I need to keep the text, and that's why I need it to be between the tags). I have tried RegEx like: /\1234/g But it replaces "Hello; \1234" as well as the text "1234". A: This should work, though using a single regexp isn't a good idea as the order of the match is not predictable, only the order of the replacements is. preg_replace('/\s*.*?\1234/i', '$1$2$3', $theText);
