Life The previous Archbishop Eustathius was deposed in 486, but restored. In 486, he was consecrated on 10 June by John III, Bishop of Antioch. In July, the Antiochene party gained control of the court, and fined Athanasius and his clergy. Athanasius fled to the court of Emperor Zeno, who restored Eustathius and his clergy in November. In 487, however, Zeno was deposed and replaced with Felix III. As Athanasius did not flee to Byzantium, the new emperor dismissed him and his clergy. Athanasius sought refuge with the Goths, but they refused his request. With the support of Bard
