Eshu is often portrayed as the trickster in Egyptian mythology, "the lord of secrets". He teaches magicians how to set things up in such a way that they can be easily duplicated, and he often works to trick others by pulling pranks on them. Fortunately for us he also understands how to make copies so that we can have access to all the great magic tricks he has invented. "The Art of Piracy" is a book about the creation of all things magical. It explains how a magician can create new objects, make cards look like f988f36e3a
