The IEEE P1118-13 Q: Onclick-able breadcrumbs plugin I have installed all plugins mentioned in the breadcrumbs documentation for the 2.3 version of wordpress. When i click on the page it shows a page like this - and it does not show the breadcrumbs. On hover the breadcrumbs are shown but is there any way to get a click-able breadcrumbs which can be clicked on any page. A: The answer is there is no click-able breadcrumbs as of the last time i looked. Inadequate treatment of premature ejaculation in a patient with chronic lymphocytic leukaemia. A 47-year-old man with chronic lymphocytic leukaemia (CLL) complained of ejaculatory dysfunction. He was receiving oral prednisolone for his CLL, and had not experienced this problem prior to its development. The ejaculation problem proved to be associated with emotional distress, and was not related to the CLL. He had previously received counselling for depression and was receiving psychological treatment at the time of the evaluation. He also stopped taking sildenafil on his own, without the advice of his treating physicians. These events led to an immediate improvement of his ejaculatory dysfunction. He did not require any medications for this complication. Although the sexual activity during the immediate follow-up period did not have any particular pitfalls, careful assessment and counselling of the patient would be necessary for the continuation of anti-tumour therapy in a patient with CLL and ejaculatory dysfunction.// // UIColor+Hex.m // frodo // // Created by Sam Soffes on 11/24/11. // Copyright (c) 2011 __MyCompanyName__.
