Gregg Braden The Divine Matrix Pdf Download

But it doesnt have to be that way. Greggs research shows that humans are already working together to heal the planet. He calls this the power of cooperative creation. We just have to learn how to connect to each other. Its really that simple. The power of cooperation is the only thing that can heal our earth, because we can never fully destroy the loving and intelligent being that is our planet. When we create our own consciousness and think in that creation, we can then create everything around us, in addition to the world we really want to create. Gregg gives us the keys to creating our own conscious creation by describing his research into the four dimensions of the world, which are: 1) the conscious awareness of earth, 2) the symbolic consciousness of the heavens, 3) the transformative consciousness of the Spirit, and 4) the creative consciousness of the future. He teaches us how to connect to these dimensions as they relate to the world and our own life situations. And he shows how to take the powers of the earth, spirit, and future into our consciousness so we can re-create our reality in the world we want to create. And this work can ultimately be experienced by every human on the earth right now. If you would like to learn more about the power of cooperation, make sure to check out Greggs incredible work. In the meantime, here are some images of our own treasured earth, which Gregg called the matrix of our own conscious creation, allowing you to feel the feelings of what it means to experience this creation for your life.
