Relegation from the National League means they'll be playing in the National Conference next season, while Reading and Havant & Waterlooville are currently second and third in the third tier. The club's situation is bleak, but owner Ally Pembroke has been buoyed by the progress made in 2016/17, and is determined to continue in the same vein. "This year I felt as though we'd taken one giant step forward," Pembroke told The Non League Paper. "We've kept all our key players and that's an important step in itself. We've also seen great strides made in the positive changes that I'm making at the club." He's not wrong. Boreham Wood manager Chris Wilder - now in his second spell at the club - has brought a professional attitude to the club that's transformed the side from something that was never going to challenge for the top spots in the league. Boreham Wood v Hereford (Image: Shane Yaxley) The club's current league position of 22nd in the National League South is no coincidence. Wilder has bought into a new way of playing, and is now paying the dividends. "In the space of one year, my own view has changed - he says he might be over-egging it a little bit

WOMEN'S SKIING IN THE SUN Skies are pretty thin in November, which makes the hit of the world's best skiers very clear indeed. The moguls are clear, too. And so are the snows. Really. All this makes for a summit-level straight-out-of-Hollywood premiere this weekend at the Snowbird resort in Utah. Stars like the Austrian man who is the first to have 100 frontside airs landed, a resort spokeswoman says. But certainly a crew of talented women aren't going to be left out. The new $34 million opening of Big Sky, in Montana, will show them in all their divine glory.

Summer hail "Hail stays around two or three days; I'm looking for a little more stick. I'd be happy to see any snow we get continue for a week or two." -- Parker Shaw, alpine racer, of New Zealand.

Not paying the price "I would definitely pay a $100 increase to make more money. I'm making a point to charge $100 more (for a rental), because I think that would make a difference. It's the same rental for a coach, a father, a brother, or a friend." -- Sam Briggs, freeskiing racer, of Austria.

Holiday on a budget "I'm not going to ski at Mammoth this year. That would be more money than I want to spend. But I'm looking forward to going to Snowbird next year and the price there is cheaper than the Mammoth price. So I'm going to that resort." -- Joey (Joe b7e8fdf5c8
